

A NIGHT OF BLUES

Guest Chef Richard Calabrese and the enthusiastic team that brought you “A Night in Venice”, proudly presents, “A Night of Blues” on Saturday, November 6 at 7:00pm. Please join us for fine Italian dining and even finer after dinner entertainment played by some of the Bay Area’s most accomplished blues musicians.

To compliment the live blues performance, we will be serving one of our best dinners:

Choice of:

Arista Al Forno – roast loin of pork w/a glazing sauce – or--

Pollo Piccate – chicken scaloppini w/capers and wine sauce

Served with:

Ravioli Fritti – fried ravioli w/seasoned breadcrumb coating

Carote Al Rosemary – carrots and string beans prepared in vegetable stock

Risotto Verde – creamy rice w/cheese and green onions

Insalata – green salad w/sliced pears, gorgonzola, toasted nuts, homemade dressing

Pane – assorted breads and homemade focaccia

Dolci – desserts, strudel de mele alla bolzanese and assorted tortas

We will be entertained by the Ancestral Blues Project.

Mo Saifullah has performed in various bands and as a studio musician for Mo Town West, Fantasy Records and Curtom Records as part of the Natural Four. He went on a few of the famous “Chitlen Tours” as backup musician for most of the performers. He has played with a number of famous musicians including: Jimmy Smith, Ed Kelly, Wild Bill Davis, Pharaoh Saunders, Arthur Priscock and John Lee Hooker

Mo was the arranger, song writer and guitar player for the group Rideout. They played disco music with a heavy rock beat. Mo’s song, “Someone Special”, hit the top ten charts. While not his proudest hour, it did bring in real money and a BAMA award.

Mo then suffered a stroke that was so severe he couldn’t hold his guitar. After six years of therapy, Mo was well on his way to recovery when he suffered a second stroke. Mo has been practicing for the day when he can make the BIG comeback.

What better place than the HMBYC??

Reservations required: $30.00, nightclub attire optional. Please indicate choice pork, chicken or vegetarian entrée. No host bar starts at 6:00pm, dinner is served promptly at 7:00pm.

RSVP to events@hmbyc.org