the meeting participates in making the next book choice. We choose the book 60 days in advance to allow our book group members ample time to use the library, shop used book stores, or their preferred method of book purchase. The book selected for our February meeting is West with the Night by Beryl Markham, which is easily available at many used book stores. If there is a book you would like to read with the group, please come prepared with a brief synopsis, book title and author, and a short pitch on why you would like to read the book. We look forward to a wide variety of topics in our book group. The book group is open to non-Yacht Club members, so please feel free to bring a friend. We hope to see you there!

HOSPITALITY & WATCHOFFICER TRAINING/RE-TRAINING And APPRECIATION SUPPER on Sunday, February 13. Training from 2-4:30, then eat, drink & be merry! (Working on some music) Please RSVP to events@hmbyc.org. Supper free to volunteer trainees, all else $10.

Club Clean-up Day - Saturday February 19th, 9AM - 3PM

Come down to the club and join in on the fun and camaraderie as we spruce things up for the upcoming season. Lunch will be provided. Contact Jay Howell, Facilities, at facilities@hmbyc.org for further information and to enlist.

Other Facilities Projects:

We have many projects around the club waiting for someone to volunteer to take the lead. Contact Jay Howell, Facilities, at facilities@hmbyc.org for further information and to enlist. Examples include:

New HMBYC sign - help the club become famous by designing, creating and installing a new water-facing club sign.

New bathroom floor - the men's bathroom could really use a new floor.

New stairs to west deck - if you are a true master carpenter and would like to tackle a stair project, we could use some new ones.

Stucco repairs - a chance to get messy. We have a big hole on the west deck that needs patching.

Plumber needed - we could really use a backflow valve in the water line and a new outdoor shower.
